INTRODUCING!

KINDRED

Airy soft with naturally complex colors, Kindred is the perfect blend of Pima cotton and baby alpaca. Kindred features a light, lofty ply that gives the alpaca fibers room to bloom while cotton strands gracefully twine throughout, giving this blend more substantial strength than pure alpaca. As each skein is dyed, the two fibers absorb the dye differently, resulting in a marled effect unique to this luxurious yarn.

This is our new go-to blend for next-to skin soft projects and for knitters who are looking for a wool-free yarn. We love this yarn for bouncy accessories and layering pieces featuring lightweight coziness.

DK | 68% Baby Alpaca, 32% Peruvian Pima Cotton. $7.99/50g ball - 115 yds.

Colors shown, first row from left: Mulled Wine 28677, Raspberry Cordial 28678, Spice 28679, Goldenrod 28680, and Cactus 28682. Second row, from left: Ink 28674, Salt Water 28675, Teacake 28676, Cargo, 28683, and Driftwood 28684.

NOW IN FINGERING!

TWILL

Twill is everything you'd want in a yarn: it's bouncy, versatile, and luxuriously soft—it blocks beautifully too! The 3-ply twist and satisfying density of this 100% Merino wool yarn results in absolutely gorgeous stitch definition, making both intricate cables and straightforward stockinette shine.

Fingering & Worsted | 100% Superwash Merino Wool.
Fingering: $6.99/40g ball - 183 yds. Worsted: $12.99/100g hank - 149 yds. Swatch is stitch #63 from Japanese Stitch Bible by Hitomi Shida {33453}.
